Mt. Pleasant, Iowa Y900
Mar. 10, 1943.

Dear Mrs. Anderson,
Lead, S. Dak.

I found down in my basement a letter from you dated July 17th '42, which I do not know if it has been answered or not. We have have had so much sickness in our family for the last three years that I have lost out in keeping up my correspondence and until the cold weather of this winter have began to do some catching up. So if I have written you just use this for ~~kl~~ kindling.

Your chart on the Tomlinson side from Florence Tomlinson, mother, to Josiah T. seems complete and in good order. William Tomlinson was the father of Joseph, he the father of Moses, he the father of John T. of Hendricks Co. Ind. and he the father of Florence, and here is where we divide. My grandfather's name was James C. Tomlinson, a cousin of John's and my father's name was Mahlon Unthank Tomlinson, James C. married Ann Doan in Hendricks Co. Ind. and they had some 10 children.

Now your lead to the Revolutionary orders is O.K.

William Tomlinson, my Grandfather's grandfather was born in 1749.

Mrs. Peyton B. Howard, has written a very interesting book on Bryan Station "Heroes and Heroines" is probably the best authority on Bryan Station and its defenders. In the list of the defenders of the station and the builders from the beginning, the name of William Tomlinson being named as one who assisted in building the fort. He had a son Nicholas and one William T. who was in the fort at the time of the seige. In 1845~~6~~ Joseph Ficklin, who as a boy was in the Station during the seige, and the letter is on file in the Lyman Draper collection in the U. of Wisconsin. Mrs. Howard gives the Tomlinson origin as Welsh. I dont agree with her but that is a small matter. I go back to 1600 and that is English but I have even read Irish History back to 1400 (Irish Patriot)

Our dates start in Kent, with the marriage of George Tomlinson and Maria Hyde in Jan. 26, 1600 married in the church of St. Mary's in Derby. One year afterwards Henry was baptised, I wrote George T. of Evanston and he was in England on business and went to the old church and there found the records. As clear as if written now.

A thousand Indians under the British Renegade, Simon Girty surrounded this Bryans Fort. and the British put a price on the head of every man in the fort. In the morning the discovered there was no water to withstand a seige so as usual the women took their piggins and noggins and went down to the ~~spring~~ spring filling the vessels and wating back to the fort before the astonished Indians could attack.

After a few assaults the Indians found that word had gone to rescuers and they left for the Ohio river. Some of the younger men against the advice of the old timers went after the Indians and were ambushed. Nicholas Tomlinson was one of these and was killed.. Since the siege of Bryans Station occurred in 1782, and since William T. Senior and his two sons, Nicholas and William T. both had active service in defending the fort and Richard was killed in the battle of Blue Licks on August 19th being with the troops following the Indians after they had left the station after besieging it for several days, their service certainly falls within the Revolutionary period.

My information comes from the Kentucky State Historical Society. I believe if you make application to the D.A.R. with this information your cause will be carried thru..

I had a splendid photo of the Monument at the Springs but lost it in the fire. The editor of the Courier Journal furnished it to me and it was all the one he had.

I had in contemplation before I was burned out to print a TOMLINSON NEWS PAPER. But that ended that. I have just got a Speed-o-Print out and as soon as I can get it working will issue a monthly paper of that nature I will issue 500 copies as a starter. I think I can make it interesting enough to pay expenses for a year or so at least. I think the Tribe would like to help a dollar or so towards the expense. There have already been some who have written me they wanted to help out.. Some have wanted to pay for it to be sent to others when I was ready. I have already some continued stories that will keep one page busy for a year at least. Perhaps two.

I am hoping warmer weather will come soon and I can get out of doors more. and think when it does Mrs. Tomlinson will improve also. My wife stays most of the time with my daughter in the next county and I stay home to "keep the home fires burning" and the pipes from freezing up too tight. I go down to stay with her quite a bit.

Hope I have given you some information that will do you some good. Mrs. Sallie Adams should have considerable as she is on the ground. I think she teaches school and is probably pretty busy. I am always to send her a notice of our reunion. Did not have it last year on account of the tires. Probably not this year either. You speak of remembering our son Ralph. He is a busy man. Teaches science in Lincoln High in Des Moines. Also studies defense work and puts in two nights a week in country schools. Gov't instruction, and has one class of a hundred nurses which has swelled to 361 last week. Keeps the U.S.O. open on Saturday nights for the soldier boys and their people who come to visit them, as the rooming situation is almost impossible. He serves hot lunch, puts on an all night picture show on Saturday nights also and the boys and their folks are there all night. I don't know how he does it but he does it. I'd better quit or you won't ever want to hear from me again..

The clock is just striking 12. Truly Respectfully,
Wm. T. Tomlinson

STORY OF THE TOMLINSON TRIBE

This paper was presented by George Tomlinson at the Iowa- Illinois Tomlinson Tribe Reunion at Rock Island, Ill. on Sunday Aug. 10, 1941

So no of you remember the story I told you some years ago as to the coming of Tomlinsons to America but there are some who would like to hear the story over again. Without tiring you too much I will give you the following.

The first record that we have of Tomlinsons is in Ireland in the year 1400. The Irish History gives the name Thrimlinson and as such the man of Ireland was an Irish Patriot and perhaps he helped St. Patrick with the snakes. Tradition in three branches of our tribe in America has it that a man named Tom Lin, during the Scotch-Irish wars back in 1400, captured a Scotch woman for a wife and that their son was called Tom Lin Son. Be that as it may, our history commences with 1635 when Henry Tomlinson and his family came to America and settled in Milford Conn. in 1635 and also lived in some other towns there. One story says the first store in Hartford was established by one Tomlinson. History tells that many citizens left Ireland and settled in England and that the early Tomlinsons all came to America all on account of religious persecution. At least many Tomlinsons were residents of Kent in Derby at a very early date. We come to Cromwell's time and we find one George Tomlinson as a Colonel in the Army. He was one of the nobility and we have his crest or coat of arms. I have had correspondence with Mr. George Tomlinson of Evanston, Ill. He has visited St. Peter's Church in the Derby Parish and after considerable red tape and the use of a little inducement with the sexton, who finally produced a big rusty key, he went into the vaults amidst the dust tombs of other years and there plainly legible, as if written at this time, found the record of marriage on Jan. 19, 1600 of one George Tomlinson to Maria Hyde and also the account one year later of the baptism of their ~~son~~/first son Henry. This record is on vellum written in Latin. This Henry was the one who came to America.

A long line of descendants of Henry Tomlinson live in America, both in the United States and Canada. I have the record of this branch of the family. Four brothers drove to our Boone, Iowa meeting and visited me at Mt. Pleasant. They came from Danbury, Conn., Florida, and New York. Since then the death of Wilbur Tomlinson of Danbury and Royal of Buffalo has been reported. They were the descendants of Henry Tomlinson. Henry was reported to me a Methodist, as are many of the descendants.

The next on arrival were three brothers, who came in the good ship named Kent, coming from the province of Kent, England and arriving in the fall of 1/1680. They came to build houses for the establishment of Philadelphia. Hard times were their lot and probably they would have perished had not the friendly Indians looked after them. They arrived too late in the fall to commence house building but the Indians showed them how to build entrances to some of the many caves along the Delaware, and they lived principally on the dried corn and pumpkins the Indians furnished them. In the next few years they were associated with William Penn in the establishment of what we now know as Pennsylvania. One of these men, William, left Pennsylvania and settled in Randolph Co., N. Car. and from him my own family are descendants.

Tomlinsons are thick in North Carolina and Kentucky. At High Point, N.C. is the Tomlinson Furniture Factory, making furniture for that territory. Here also is a plantation owned by Tomlinsons for 250 years and the descendants of the slaves, who were freed long before the Civil War, still run the plantation. From the Carolinas one William Tomlinson went into Kentucky. He was one of the first white men arriving in Kentucky with Dr. Walker's expedition. He was my great-great-grandfather. He was in the battle of Bryan Springs where 1000 Indians besieged the Fort. This William leased 5000 acres of land for $1/acre for 99 yrs. and later gave John D. Rockefeller this lease and he put down the first oil wells on a part of this territory. Why didn't we all get in on that.

Joseph and James Tomlinson came from Ireland in 1726 and settled in Maryland. Joseph married Druscilla Van Swaerengen, who was of the family interested in the Nickle Plate Railroad.

In the Archives at Philadelphia there are many Tomlinsons recorded. Some of the names are as follows: Isaac, Henry, Mary, Ephriham, Benjamin, Joseph, John, Ebenizer, James, William, Thomas, Nathan, George, Enoch, Agur, Elizabeth, Deborah, Margaret.

We find also, many trades represented, as follows: Preachers, Lawyers, Tinners, Printers, Undertakers, Bankers, and one man as a Milliner.

Many histories have been written about the Quakers, Called by some the Friends. The Tomlinson family has long been associated with this religious sect, However younger generations demanded music, shorter sermons, more life to the service. Thus has gone the old custom of waiting "Until the spirit moved the Elder" for the service to begin.

As far as my own personal history is concerned, I relate the following: My grandfather, James C. Tomlinson came to Indiana from North Carolina to find a home. He lived in a pole cabin for some time and my father was the oldest of several children. In 1834 he erected a large house in Plainfield, Indiana for the purpose of taking care of those attending the yearly meeting of the Quaker Faith, which meeting was held at Plainfield. In 1926 this old building was razed to make room for a modern station by the Standard Oil Co. My father's name was Mahlon Unthank Tomlinson, and he came to Iowa in the early '40s and settled on a farm two miles west of Salem, a small Quaker town. My brothers and sisters were born there and I first saw the light of day on the old homestead. When I was three years old we moved to town, making the family home there for many years. Of this particular branch of the Tomlinson family there are several representatives here today.

Children of Mahlon Unthank Tomlinson and Suzzana Edgerton:

This is the 21st meeting of the TOMLINSON TRIBE. Each year a president has been elected for the organization. Mr. Alfred H. Tomlinson of Indianola, Iowa was elected president at the meeting last August held at Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Due to the fact he is unable to be here today, as he is in California at the home of his daughter he has suggested that Ralph Lynn Tomlinson of Bonaparte, Iowa serve in his stead. During the 21 years of the organization Mrs. Blanche

Renner of Monroe, Iowa has served as Secretary. Today we have 110 members of the TRIBE registered. We are grateful to the Coburns, who have served as hosts to this gathering, arranged for the meeting place and program.

At the business meeting held after the program Mr. Isaac H. Tomlinson was elected president of the organization for the coming year and, at his invitation, the meeting place was set for Des Moines on the second Sunday in August of 1942. We will look forward to seeing many of the TRIBE at this meeting next year

WAR DEPARTMENT
Washington, D.C.

July 22, 1942

Nine W. Nation
Alliance, Nebraska

The records in this office show that one William Tomlinson served in the Revolutionary War as a private in Captain William Croghan's Company, 8th Virginia Regiment (1776- 1778), commanded by Colonel Abraham Bowman. He enlisted April 24, 1776 for the State of Virginia, and his name is last borne on the company muster rolls for January, 1778, dated February 4, 1778, which shows "Sick Hspla".

The records also show that one William Tomlinson served in that war as a private and drummer in Captain Thomas Edmund's Company, designated as 11th and 15th Virginia Regiment and 11th Virginia Regiment, commanded successively by Lieut. Colonel ~~Cropper~~/James Innes, Major Gustavus B. Wallace, Lieut. Colonel Cropper, Colonel Daniel Morgan and Colonel Abraham Buford. He enlisted for three years, also shown for the war, but the date of his enlistment is not shown. His name is first borne on the company pay roll for January, 1777: was transferred about May, 1779 to Major John Webb's Company, 5th and 11th Virginia Regiment, commanded by Colonel William Russell, and his name is last borne on the company muster roll for November, 1779, dated December, 9, 1779.

The name David Nowson has not been found on the records on file in this office of soldiers who served in the Revolutionary War from Virginia.

The collection of Revolutionary War records on file in this office is incomplete, but it is possible that additional information may be obtained from the Librarian, Virginia State Library, Richmond, Va., or from the Archivist, National Archives, Washington, D.C., who has custody of the United States Pension records covering the period of that war.

The records of the early wars on file in this office are of a ~~strictly~~ strictly military character and rarely show the next of kin of a soldier or any items of personal or family history, and in the case of the ~~above~~ above named men nothing is shown of record relative to families.

Mrs. Glen Anderson, Lord, S.D.

My Dear Mrs. Anderson

I have your letter of the 17th and will answer it hurriedly as I have not time to look the matter up today and will do so as soon as I can do so. Mrs. Tomlinson has been very ill for a long time and I have not had much time to devote to other matters. She is with our daughter near here and I go there to be with her at night, as she has to have medicine regularly under the Dr. care.

I am mailing you a booklet that explains itself. While not exactly authentic it reads good, if I did write it. Most people think that the Tomlinsons being Quakers would not fight for the country, but they do not know the Revolutionary Tomlinsons.

This William Tomlinson was my Grandfather's Grandfather, and he was in the battle of Bryan Springs Ky. and he married Martha Coppock and it was the Coppock-Mondanhall-Tomlinson who leased the land in Pennsylvania so that John D. got hold of 5000 acres and put down the first oil well at Oil City in 1859. We should have gotten in on that. Frederick Tomlinson was a captain under Washington.

Do you have additional information as to your Grandfather John Tomlinson of Hendricks Co., Ind.? Your lineage is correct as to my records back to Am. Tomlinson. Mrs. Renner and I are descendants of the same line also. She has been our TRIBEX Secretary since we have had an organization 23 yrs. It seems best this year to not have the annual meeting. I regret this very much, as there are always enough Tomlinsons to make it very interesting. Last year we had a big crowd. I am sending you the addresses of I.H. and myself. Crowd was so dense they could not all hear so I have them printed. I remember the meeting at Maxwell, Samuel Tomlinson, Pres. where we had a wonderful time and were so well entertained by the Tomlinsons at Maxwell. Mrs. Max Meyer spoke that day. More fried chicken on the table that day than could be eaten.

I have had considerable correspondence with Cousin, Mrs. Sallie T. Adams in Lexington but have never been able to go see her.

August 8th. I am at home again for a short time and will add some more to my letter and apologize for not writing it sooner and even now I do not have what you want and have not had time while here to look it up. I am going back in a few minutes but will send this so that you may know I have not forgotten about the matter. I am very sorry that our reunion has been put by for the year for I havnt missed one in 20 years. A letter from Mrs. Duane T. from Osco, Ill wanting to attend the next reunion just came in.

Just recently received a map of the Great Salisbury Road in Penn. where the battle of Guilford County Court House was fought in 1781 showing where the Tomlinson connections lived. New Garden Meeting House where Friends lived near where Wm. Tomlinson and Andrew Hoover (G.G. Father of Herbert Hoover) were partners in a tannery. Made leather and sold during the Revolution. All of them belonged to New Garden Meeting. I have a picture of the End Quaker Meeting House in Philadelphia. The first was a log cabin. This of flat rock.

Must stop and go now. Trust you got the pamphlet and card I mailed.

I am very truly for the Tomlinson Tribe of America.

Mrs. Glenn Anderson:

My dear Mrs. Anderson your letter received and I will try as best I can to answer your questions. Yes I am a member of the D.A.R. and have been for a number of years. My grandfather Wm. Tomlinson was one of the first pioneers of Kentucky and not a Quaker preacher his wife's name was Martha. He fought the Indians and his name is on the records of Bryan Sta. Springs here. My father had a brother named John, but I ~~never~~ never saw but one of my father's brothers the oldest, James, they lived in Indiana. My father was the youngest child, and his name was Joseph. Moses was a family name. I have a complete record, but am sorry to say I have no idea where it is. I was taken suddenly ill with a very severe heart attack, my room was on the 2nd floor, the Dr. said I must be moved to the first floor room my things were packed, and I have never been able to go through them, so my precious documents may have been thrown out as waste paper I lost so many things. I am sure that George Tomlinson, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, can give you all the information you want about the Tomlinsons of Indiana, he is a cousin of mine and I almost feel sure that you are too. I have a beautiful Coat of Arms "Tomlinson". Miss Virginia Hanna when in Lexington hunted up my record. If you do not get all the information you need I will see what Miss Hanna can do. I was glad to hear from you and hope soon to hear that y you are a full fledged D.A.R.

Very Truly Yours
Sallie T. Adams
